SUPPLIER:
MPM Bradford

CLIENT:
Aqua Safety Showers

PROJECT:
Volume production of safety showers and eyebaths

RESULTS:
Delivering growth by improving speed of production

As a company, Aqua Safety Showers always strive to offer the highest quality products manufactured to meet specific safety standards as well as units that will meet both technical and commercial requirements.

Alongside this, Aqua Safety Showers build relationships with their customers to give them 100% customer service.

It is with this ethos and mission statement in mind, that they knew they had to work with MPM as a supplier, who clearly demonstrate the same high levels of customer service.

Having worked with MPM previously, Janet Waine (General Manager) understood the top quality products that MPM deliver and had complete trust in their ability to deliver the growth she required for her business.

Same High Levels of Customer Service

Adding Value to the Working Environment

A Listening and Supporting Team

With Aqua's business reaching this new growth phase, she knew that she could trust Ben and the MPM team to deliver without having to spend time carrying out in depth supplier checks.

With Janet's experience in managing suppliers in a manufacturing environment she understood the importance of quality over quantity, she also appreciated that her circle of suppliers must not just deliver but also add value to their day to day working environment - MPM ticked all her boxes.

"We have an amazing working relationship with the MPM team, they listen to us, support us and always deliver on their promises.

It is great when you can work with a supplier that always delivers and yet also have great banter with the individuals, it makes working life much more fun and we highly recommend the whole team."
